

Scripture Journaling for Writers

Jot down the answers to these questions here, and record more thoughts in a journal. Turn your answers into prayers for God's help as you write or into praise for what He provides and for what His good purposes are for our ministries.

#1 - If God calls us to minister to others, what does He give us according to these verses? How does each of these passages help us as we write?

- Romans 12:6-8 -
- 1 Peter 4:11 -
- 2 Timothy 1:7 -
- Ephesians 6:10-20 -
- Galatians 5:22-23 -

#2 - From the book of 2 Timothy, how do we become spiritually fit to write or serve God?

- 2 Timothy 1:6 -
- 2 Timothy 1:13 -
- 2 Timothy 2:1 -
- 2 Timothy 2:15 -
- 2 Timothy 2:19 -
- 2 Timothy 2:22 -
- 2 Timothy 3:14 -
- 2 Timothy 4:2 -
- 2 Timothy 4:5 -

#3 - What motivations do these passages give for sticking with our calling as writers?

- What motivations do you see in Paul's example in Philippians 1:21-26?
- Who do we proclaim according to Colossians 1:28, and what can believers become in Him?
- What contrast in 2 Timothy 3:12-17 would motivate us to follow God fully? And what benefits does sharing God's Word bring to those who receive it?
